

DECORATED SISTER'S LOVER IN MANY TINTS

He Was a Large Young Man,
But They Were Two, and
Handy With Their Fists.

THOUGHT HIM NO EQUAL

Magistrate Kernochan Fines Each
Brother $3 and Advises Them to Be More Diplomatic.

Patrick Walsh, a large young man, exhibited to Magistrate Kernochan, in the Harlem Police Court, today, a countenance of as many shades of color as a circus billboard. He charged Edward and Pauline Fitzgerald, two youths of much smaller stature than himself, with having been the artists of the impressionistic-deter school, who so decorated him, changed his "tints," as he expressed it, and begged that they be punished.

The two Fitzgeralds, Mr. Walsh said, really had no cause to be laboring him, but they pretended to think his attention to their slaps were becoming too ardent and were displeased because they considered him of a lower social status.

At the home of Mr. Walsh's uncle, No. 416 Manhattan avenue, last night at 11 o'clock, when his sister was visiting, his uncle being her brother-in-law, the two Fitzgeralds arrived, and without any preliminary drove the family out of the dining room, locked the door and proceeded to demonstrate their opposition to his suit. Besides the new spring effects in color blinding on his face, Mr. Walsh said he could show marks of all sizes and depth on his body.

The Fitzgeralds denied having laid the weight of their hands upon Mr. Walsh, but there was no evidence to show that any one else had bestowed the black eyes, the red and twisted nose and the purple spots on him, so Magistrate Kernochan fined them each $3 and advised them to be more diplomatic in intimating the brotherly approval of any young man who might pay attention to their sister.

CAUGHT PARIS ANARCHISTS
WITH LOAD OF DYNAMITE.

PARIS, April 10.—The police of this city have taken into custody three well-known Anarchists named Kuhn, Roux and Rousset. They also captured a cart loaded with dynamite which the prisoners had stored in a stable.

The strictest security is being maintained in regard to the affair, but it is believed that the men are connected in some way with a plot directed against the men who have taken a prominent part in supporting the gigantic lockout which went into effect in this city April 6, affecting 150,000 men, bricklayers and allied workmen in the building trades.

"Arnold" Nightgowns For Infants

There is no garment so healthful and none softer and more delicate than these especially designed little gowns for babies too young to wear night drawers.

They draw together at the bottom with shirring string, but are of good length so as not to bind the baby's limbs. A full line of "Arnold" Knit Goods carried in stock.

In Buying a Piano

it is just as important WHERE you buy as WHAT you buy. The majority of purchasers are not familiar with piano construction and the name means everything. For 64 years the PEASE name has stood for fair dealing, and over 78,000 satisfied customers tell the measure of our success. Our prices are moderate and our 3-year payment plan most economical. Write for our bargain list of used Pianos. The prices, from $100 up, are interesting.

GIRL WHOM HE KICKED TOO ILL TO GO TO COURT.

She Struck Him for Insulting Her,
and He Knocked Her Down—
Held by Magistrate.

Magistrate Harris held Giovanni Malina, of No. 223 Mulberry street, in bonds of $1,000 to-day for further examination in Yorkville Court after he had been charged with striking a girl. According to Larrier, Miss Bertina Lee, a pretty music teacher, of No. 216 Division street, Hoboken, was walking through Houston street near the Bowery when Malina halted her and said something vile. The young woman retorted, so the detective said, he knocked her down and kicked her in the stomach with such violence that she collapsed while waiting at the New York to Jersey station. A patrolman was called by a physician saving Miss Lee was suffering greatly from her injuries and could not appear before Saturday.
